

IN STRUGGLE AND COMMUNITY: BUILDING AFRO-ASIAN SOLIDARITY IN SACRAMENTO AND BEYOND

DATE: Thursday, Sept. 23, 2021

TIME: 4-5:30 pm

LOCATION: Zoom - <https://csus.zoom.us/j/87415329266> or PMI 634 606 7272

For more information, please contact megan.raschig@csus.edu

csus.edu |

The Department of Anthropology's Committee for Anti-Racism, Diversity and Inclusion is excited to host a roundtable discussion on the past, present, and futures of Black and Asian American and Pacific Islander solidarity. This discussion will examine how Black people and AAPIs in Sacramento have activated alliances and organized in response to state-sanctioned violence, gentrification, and white supremacy.

Featured Speakers: Dr. Jeanelle Hope, Assistant Professor of Comparative Race and Ethnic Studies at Texas Christian University, Salvin Chahal, Poet/MC, and LB Le, Community Activist.

All students, faculty, and campus and broader community welcome!

SACRAMENTO STATE
COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES & INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES